LOCATION

Long Lawford is a pretty village with an abundance of period buildings, several pubs, a village hall and a convenience store. Sitting close to the River Avon, the thriving market town of Rugby is known all over the world for being the birthplace of Rugby football. As the second largest town in Warwickshire, it offers an abundance of shops, restaurants and bars, as well as the famous Rugby School, where the sport was played for the very first time.

The town's many attractions include the Webb Ellis Rugby Football Museum, Rugby Art Gallery and Museum, Swift Valley Nature Reserve, St Maries Church and the World Rugby Hall of Fame. For family days out, there's plenty of choice nearby. Draycote Water Country Park is less than five miles away and offers walking trails and water sports such as canoeing, sailing and boarding. It's also a popular place for fishing and bird watching. Just a little further away (7.2 miles from Longford Manor) is Coombe Country Park. Another great place to visit for a breath of fresh air, here you will find 500 acres of gardens, woods and lakeland, ideal for a walk with the family or a quiet picnic.
